Negotiate Valley View Site

FRANKFORT -- The part of the Valley View Farm property north of U.S. 30 is to be transferred to the three area park districts, Frankfort, Mokena and New Lenox.

The transaction is expected to be closed around Nov. 1.

The Valley View Farm property consists of 87 acres--30 on the north side of Lincoln Highway, a rolling, wooded tract that was used for recreation and entertainment, and 47 on the south side of the highway that runs back to the Penn Central railroad tracks and has the south extension of Wolf Rd. as its western border. It is flat and open.

On the north side of the highway there was a restaurant, a dance hall, a swimming pool, a large picnic area with concession stand and stage, and space along the highway toward Wolf Rd. that was utilized for attractions that might cause passing motorists to stop and spend.

The Marshall Savings and Loan Co., now defunct, held a mortgage on the premises. When the operators of Valley View Farm failed to meet their bills there was a receivership. Eventually the property passed to the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, which had paid off the depositors of the Marshall Savings and Loan.

After the restaurant closed the dance hall it continued to operate weekends, catering to youth groups and featuring way-out bands. It was not a place that caused area residents to boast about, and after a fire gutted the dance hall sometime last year, no sorrow was expressed by area people and no one came rushing forward with offers of financial aid to rebuild the place.

More than a year ago the mayors of Frankfort, Mokena and New Lenox got together and discussed the possibility of getting someone to take the property over. The park districts was first choice and if the parks couldn't get the property then perhaps the county forest preserve could add it to its nearby holdings.

The village officers and officials of the three park districts have been working on the project for many months and have finally reached an agreement with the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation.

The corporation is ready to transfer the property north of U.S. 30 to the three park boards if certain conditions effecting the south 47 acres are met.

The Corporation plans to develop the property south of the highway--or perhaps it would be better to say that the corporation wants assurance that the property can be developed for light industrial and commercial purposes.

The corporation wants the south 47 acres annexed to the village of Frankfort.

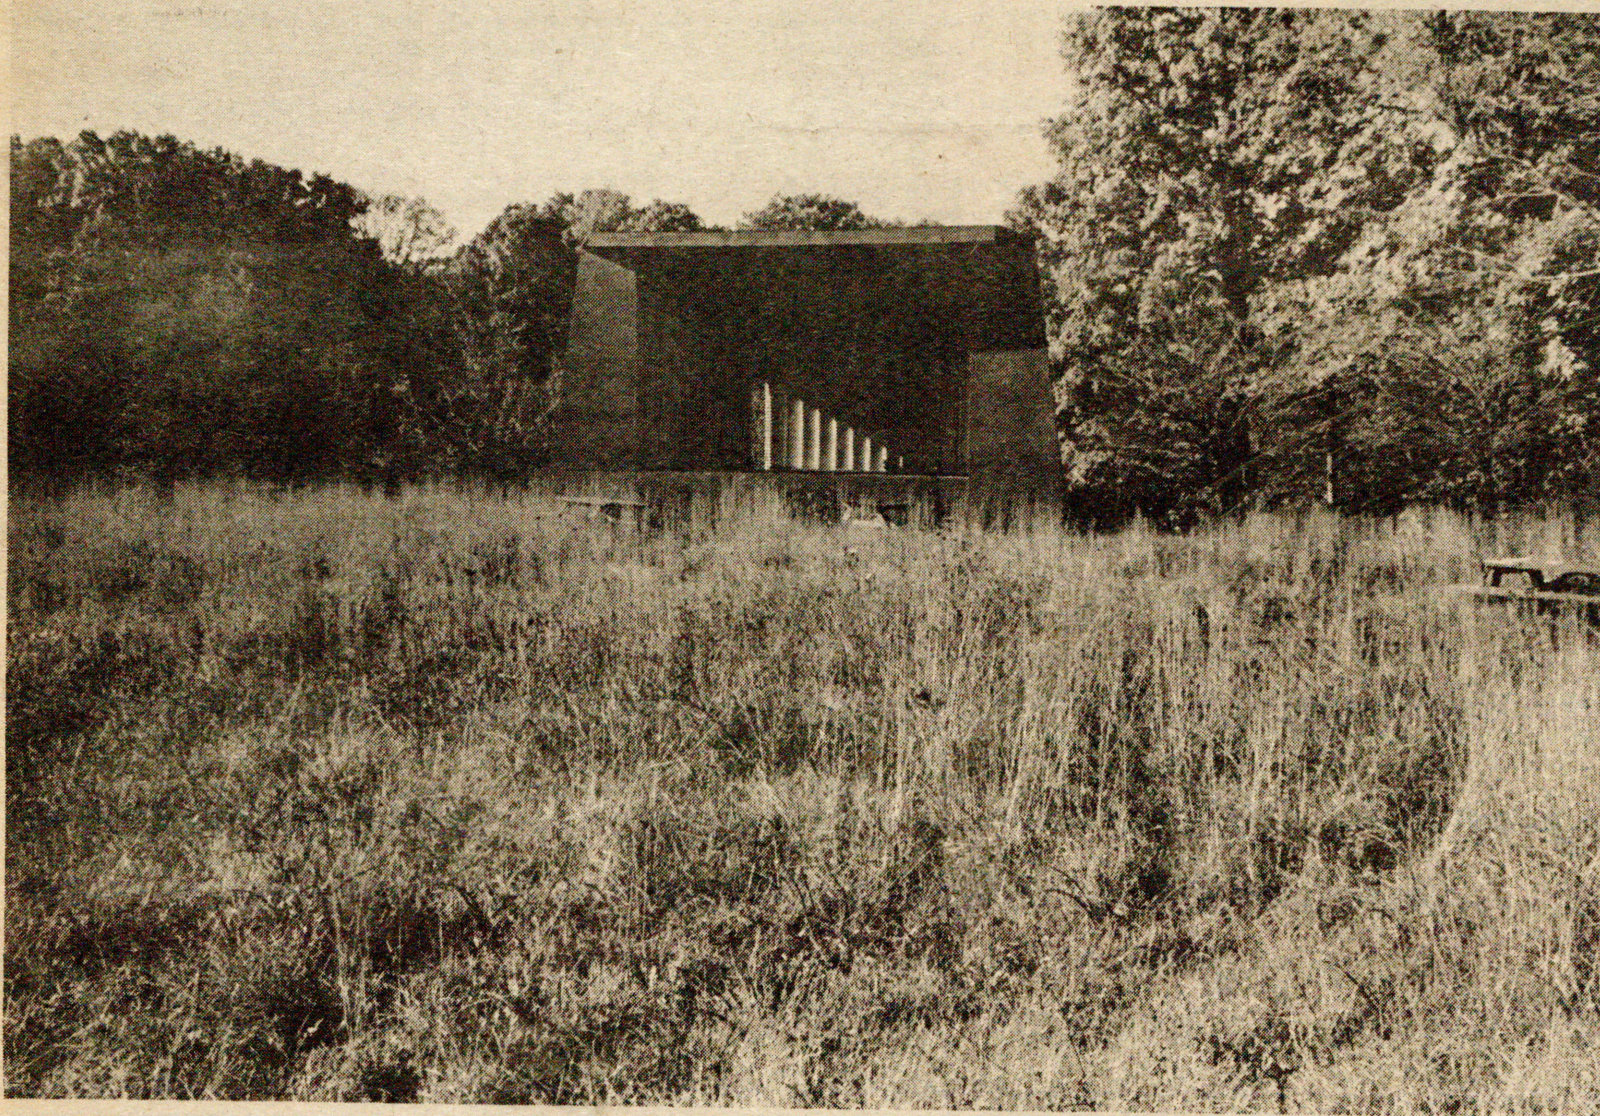

The corporation wants assurance that the property will be zoned for light industry and commercial use.

The corporation also stipulates that the three park boards are to pay for extension of sewer service to the tract south of the highway.

The engineers' estimate of this extension of the Frankfort sewer system would cost approximately $65,500.

To get this money each of the park districts would have to issue general obligation bonds. It was estimated that each bond issue would be $25,000, as there would be need of funds to help put the north side tract in shape. Such bond issues would have to be approved by the voters of each district at a referendum.

Larry Wennlund, of the law firm of Herschbach, Tracy, and Johnson in Joliet, who is representing the park districts, said that it is ex-

An abandoned stage on the Valley View Farm may become the property of the Frankfort, Mokena and New Lenox park districts if negotiations are completed.

School bond Issue Fails

LOCKPORT -- Voters in the Ludwig-Reed-Walsh Grade School District Saturday defeated a proposed 67 cent increase in the educational tax rate by a vote of 507-330.

The district has been operating since 1958 on a tax rate of $1.03 per $100 valuation which is below the maximum rate of $3 allowed by law.

The school district is one of the highest assessed valuation areas in Lockport, but the board of education says inflation, population growth and increased wage demands are the key factors affecting the district's budget.

Commuter parking dispute continues

The dispute over commuter parking in Lockport continued last night with no immediate solution in sight. As usual the Lockport city council found itself in the middle, between commuters and homeowners.

The council recently banned Gulf Mobile and Ohio commuters from parking in a dead end street area on 5th street near the 5th street station.

Residents on the street had apparently complained to the city about commuter parking bring about the ban. The only other city station is located at 13th street.

William Penn, attorney representing a group of disgruntled commuters who usually park on 5th street told the city council that he could find no parking ordinance that prohibits parking on 5th street. Penn said he did find an ordinance prohibiting parkway parking, but the language was vague.

Penn told the council "Gentlemen, I think we could have a common effort and solve this problem together. The law is quite clear that the powers of the city are only those delegated in the Illinois revised statutes. Corporate authority has the right to regulate traffic on its streets with the limitations that the exercise of power must be reasonable."

Penn said that commuters have been parking on 5th street for years without complaints. City Clerk Don Murphy said the city could find no ordinance that said 5th street was a parking area.

The council asked Penn to work with alderman Leonard Strahanoski, and Gordon McCluskey, director of public works, to measure off, and see how many parking places are available on fifth street.

In other action: The council announced 100 per cent support of the anti-pollution bond issue in the Nov. 3 election. Announced that starting Oct. 26, 7th street, between Madison and Route 7 would again be two way.

OK Brightwood Annexation

MOKENA — Annexation of Brightwood, which lies along the south side of Hamilton Rd., has been approved by the village board of Mokena and an ordinance making it a part of the municipality was adopted.

This was an annexation brought about by petition filed in the circuit court of Will County in which a majority of the property owners and electors signified their desire to have the area annexed to the village. The court approved the petition, following a hearing passed it on to the Mokena village board for approval or disapproval.

Under the law in this type of annexation it does not become final for 30 days. Residents of Mokena have that period in which to file a petition for a referendum. There has been no talk of any such procedure.

There are approximately 300 residents of Brightwood. The area is in need of sewers.

Trustee Edward Haislet head of the ordinance and licensing committees, was authorized to proceed with draft of a policy for pre-annexation talks.

In a preliminary report, Haislet recommended that residents of an area seeking annexation should appoint a committee.

The committee would draw up a list of reasons for the annexation and provide the plan commission with maps, a record of assets, condition of the streets and public properties. If approved by the plan commission a written recommendation is filed with the mayor then the village board would consider the proposal. If the proposal should find favor with the board then the pre-annexation agreement would be drawn for consideration by the village board and the residents of the areas to be annexed.

Haislet also is to draft suggestions for an ordinance covering the posting of political advertisements in the village. Someone complained that there are not only signs remaining from the primary last February but from the 1968 elections as well.

Village Attorney George E. Sangmiester is drafting an ordinance similar to those enacted in Frankfort and other municipalities barring solicitors from premises posted that they are not welcome and that if they come on the property they are guilty of trespass and subject to arrest. This takes care of peddlers and all kinds of salesmen, it was said.

The village board adopted a resolution urging public support of the state bond issue coming up at the election Nov. 3. The funds provided by this issue would be used in combating pollution. Most municipalities are backing the issue because they have hopes of getting assistance in improving sewer systems or sewage treatment.

The board adopted an ordinance under which the village will purchase a lot at 19828 Front St., which is adjacent to the village hall lot on the east. The property is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Danie McAlpine and has a frontage of 50 feet and a depth of 100 feet. The village is paying $7,900 for the property with the payments spread over a five year period with interest not to exceed six per cent.

The village has been planning to remodel the present village hall so that it will have more space for meetings. Whether the plans will be revamped to take in the additional space was not stated at last week's meeting.

Joseph Grobarcik, who operates a grocery store on Front St., will be allowed to burn boxes and papers in his present incinerator until the council decides how he is to dispose of his rubbish. In some communities scavengers make special trips to pick up the cartons and paper that accumulate at food markets, with the merchant served paying the bill. According to village ordinance only approved incinerators are to be used in burning paper and cartons. Theoretically, such incinerators are not supposed to emit smoke. Grobarcik asked the village board to recommend an incinerator and the board pushed the question along to the fire department.

According to a spokesman for the fire department the only recommendations they have is for an incinerator that has been approved by the Underwriters Laboratories. There are a number of companies that make these incinerators, the department spokesman said. They are intended primarily, he added, to contain rubbish fires.

Action was held up on an ordinance that would subject train crews to arrest if a train blocked one of the village crossings more than 10 minutes until Springfield courts have passed on the legality of such measures.

The building department has fixed a final inspection fee ranging from $10 to $25 preliminary to issuance of an occupancy permit.

Leaf pickup In Lemont

LEMONT—Harry Swanson, Secretary of the Lemont Pollution Commission, has offered a solution to the problem of burning leaves.

Herman W. Schoob, phone 257-6154, will pickup bagged leaves left on the curb on Saturday, Oct. 24, between 1-4 p.m. (Others in the community provide the same service.)

The suggestion was made in compliance with a Cook County Ordinance prohibiting open burning and carrying a $500 fine for each day of the offense. Complaints may be filed with the Cook County Air Pollution Control Bureau, County Bldg., Chicago.

The next scheduled quarterly meeting of the Lemont Pollution Commission will be Nov. 17, 8:30 p.m., at Bethany Lutheran Church Parlor.

Mokena grade schools Need more classrooms

MOKENA — When the Mokena grade school board has its November meeting it is expected to set a date for a bond referendum for an addition to the primary school at Willowcrest.

The board is now conferring with its architects, Healy Moore and Associates, to get an estimate of cost on which it could base its referendum.

The board has bonding power now of something in excess of $150,000, it was reported, and $150,000 is believed to be sufficient to build four classrooms.

It has been recommended that the board build four rooms in 1971, but with foundations that can carry another floor of the same size when more money is available.

The board authorized James Ennis to get Mokena on the list of school districts that are running out of bonding power and turning to the Illinois School Building Commission for aid.

When a district's bonding power is exhausted the building commission will build a school without interest. The districts 16 and a fraction years in which to pay off the cost of the building, at the rate of so much a month.

The primary school at Willowcrest has eight rooms but more class space is needed for next year, Superintendent Ennis said.

The question of following the example of the Valley View School District of Romeoville and operating the Mokena district on a 12-month basis was discussed as a means of taking care of the growing school population. Superintendent Ennis said he has been studying the program but believes it would take about three years to put it into effect here.

Ennis is to attend a seminar on professional negotiating procedures to be held at the University of Michigan, Nov. 30, Dec. 1-2. The cost will be $250.

William Barenz, as delegate, and Norman Patterson as alternate, will represent

Teachers, Dist. 205 Begin negotiations

LOCKPORT — The first negotiating session between the Lockport Federation of Teachers Local 1291 and the District 205 Board of Education was Oct. 13.

This marked the opening of negotiations between the two groups, regarding the 1970-71 contract. Presently, the teachers are working without a contract and are paid on the 1969-70 salary schedule.

The board negotiating committee is composed of Stephen Platko, chairman, William Waldon and Stanley Chapas. The teacher's negotiators are Richard Manley, president of the AFT, Jim Szczepaniak, Clare Cummings, Jim Hallick and Charles Wyne.

Commenting on the meeting, Manley said, "There seems to be a question as to whether teachers should take a no-contract, no-work position in situations like this."

"However, if future negotiating sessions are as productive as the first session, there is no reason to take this position. Only time will tell. "It seems that the board sent the district at the annual meeting of the Illinois Association of School Boards Nov. 21-22, in Chicago.

The board rescinded its decision to put hot lunches and milk payments on a daily cash basis. The federal government will continue to give their youngsters 15 cents a week to pay the milk bill. Lunches are paid for daily or weekly.

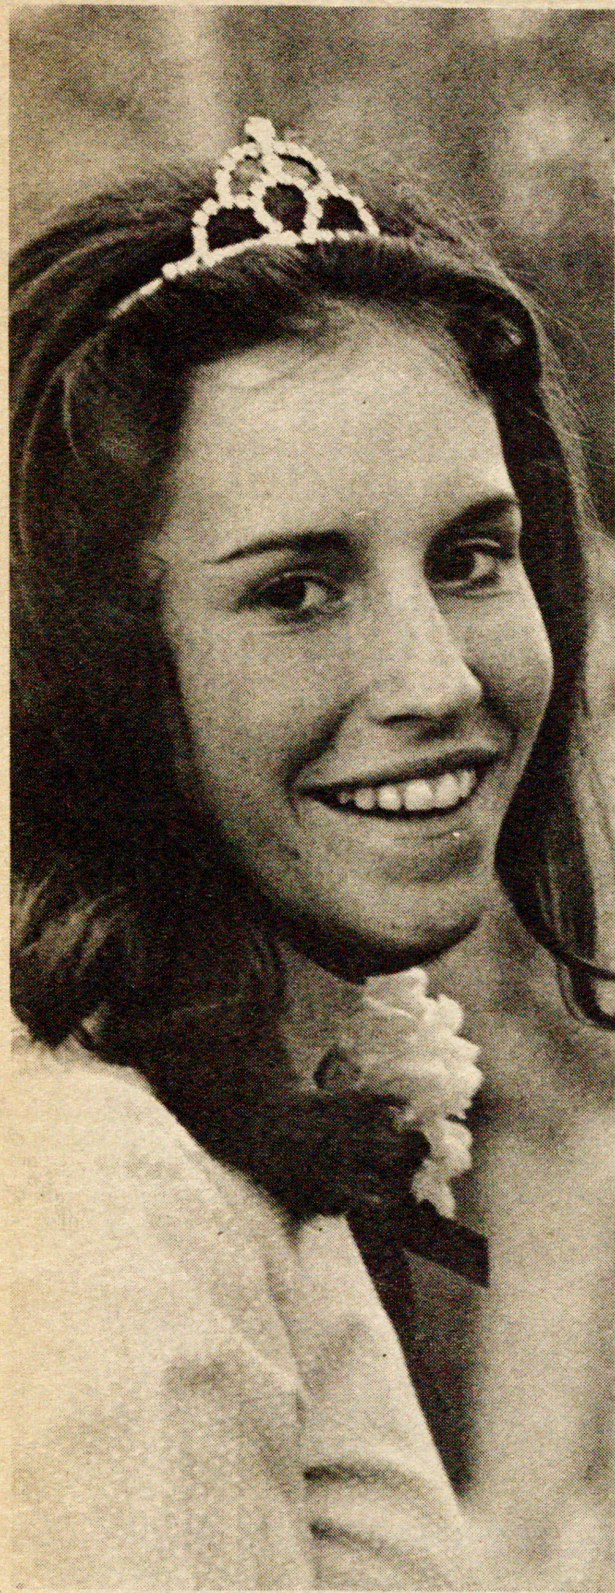

has given negotiations a high priority and if this attitude persists, we are hopeful of a rapid and equitable settlement.

"Hopefully, by the third session we will be discussing monetary items which will include the 1970-71 salary schedule, and perhaps in four to six weeks, this whole thing will be history."

Manley added, "To my knowledge, New Trier, Lyons, Argo, Oak Lawn, one of the local 571 schools, and Lockport are the only suburban high schools that have not settled for the 1970-71 school year."

Steve Platko was in agreement with Manley's statement. "We (the board) found this to be the situation, too. The first meeting was amiable and productive. I would echo Mr. Manley's comments and hope for an early meeting of the minds."

"There has been good rapport around the bargaining table," he added. "Both parties are looking for a solution . . . prolonged bickering won't do anybody any good."

Betsy Hollister, Homecoming Queen of Lockport Central-East High School, smiles approvingly at her subjects.

More pay for Crossing guards

LEMONT — The Lemont village board has voted to grant a 25 cent-an-hour pay raise effective in October for the village's six crossing guards.

The action was taken at the request of Police Chief Frank Sowa who said one of the guards had asked him for the raise after the school district had granted a similar increase to its guards.

Trustee Bernie Shaf said the raise will bring total wages to $2 an hour and will cost the village $600.

Trustees informally agreed that crossing guards would not be eligible for a raise when annual salary reviews are made in April.

In other business the village set a time tentatively for Halloween trick-or-treating at 5-8 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 31. At Mayor John Kujawa's suggestion, the time set by Lockport will be checked in an effort to coordinate between the two villages.

The board also:

--Heard a report from Trustee Barry Ladd that he had received a complaint of rats somewhere in the village. Ladd said he had checked the area and found it to be "clean and sanitary."

--Discussed purchasing an end loader and back hoe for salt loading. Trustee Harry Mentch's estimate of the cost was $3,500.

--Authorized purchase of a 1971 Chevrolet for the police department at a cost of $2,447 after trade-in on a 1970 model.

A public hearing on a zoning change for property on the north side of McCarthy Road 934 feet east of Archer Ave. will be at 3 p.m. Monday in the village hall.

If approved the zoning will be changed to B-5, general commercial, from B-1, restricted business. Robert Elliot, owner of the property, plans to use the property for sales and storage of equipment.

Unlike his famous father, Adlai Stevenson III has no holes yet. Stevenson addressed an audience Sunday afternoon at Downers Grove High School on cuts in federal support to science. Sponsored by Scientists for Stevenson, the meeting was attended by a large number of employees of Argonne National Laboratories.

Adopt traffic ordinance

BY GLENN LOGAN
FRANKFORT — A lengthy ordinance was presented to the village board Monday night by August Santoro, village attorney, for adoption at the next meeting of the board on Nov. 2.

The ordinance gives the village jurisdiction in a considerable number of traffic offenses which have been prosecuted under state law.

It was explained by Santoro that when the state law was used fines collected passed to the county. Under the new ordinance the village will benefit from penalties collected.

An amendment to an agreement for extension of water and sewer service south on Center Road was adopted by the board. In the original agreement a limitation clause was included which fixed the top figure for Mobile Chemical Co. and Commonwealth Edison Co. at $8,000 and $6,000, respectively.

Other property owners asked for similar protection. The amendment enacted

Monday night provides that the limit of liability will be $7.50 per foot for other property owners.

The agreement with the two companies remains the same.

Under this agreement the village would be liable for any cost in excess of $7.50 per foot but Mayor Glenn Warning said he had talked with several contractors and he was confident the $7.50 figure would be sufficient.

Trustee Allen Mager, head of the building committee, suggested adoption of changes in the building code which might make it more adaptable to local conditions.

Frankfort has adopted the national building code. Mager said he had been conferring with officials in other communities and found they had been using a suburban code which follows the national code in part but is written to meet local needs.

Trustee Howard Osmus, suggested Mager get more information on the suburban commission code and present it at the next meeting.

week until Tuesday night of this week, was expected to act on the police situation.

Since last July when the former chief, Wayne Ryder, three patrolmen and three radio operators resigned en masse in the policy dispute, Mokena has only had a temporary, acting chief, Harold Fitch.

New chief for Mokena scheduled this week

MOKENA -- The Mokena police commission, made up of Trustees Anthony Dina, Kenneth Warning, Chester Ebert and Mayor Will Tuttle, met last Friday night to review applications for the post of police chief, with the view of submitting a recommendation to the village board.

The village board, which recessed its meeting last

Frankfort discusses tap-on fee increase

FRANKFORT — The Frankfort village board has been discussing a raise in tap-on fees for sewer and water connections for several weeks and a decision probably will be made Nov. 16.

At that time the village plan commission and the village industrial commission are expected to give the board their recommendations on the subject.

The present tap-on fees are $100 for sewer and $150 for water. Under the proposed schedule, outlined in a letter from Robert Hamilton, village engineer, the charge for a combined tap-on would be $500 for a single-family residence. There would be another rate for apartment buildings, depending upon the number of apartments, and the rate proposed for industry would be $1,500 an acre.

Hamilton advised the board members that at current prices a treatment plant to meet the needs of the village would cost about $65 per capita or about $250 a home. Therefore, he said, the combined charge of $500 could be broken down as follows — sewage treatment $250; sewer extension, $100; water supply and storage, $75; and water extension, $75, making a total of $500 a home.

Following the discussion Donald Kreml, chairman of the village industrial commission, said that in his opinion industry would have no objection to the fee of $1,500 an acre.

"If you tell them the village had adequate sewer and water facilities and welcomes them to the community, that is what they want," Kreml said, adding "they won't bat an eye at a $1,500 fee."

Mayor Glenn Warning indicated he favored a fee schedule that would be flexible as far as industry is concerned. Trustee Lynn Kohlhausen was quoted as favoring set tap-on rates for homes.

The money collected from tap-on fees would be kept in a fund to be used in improvement of the services.

Bert Breidert, chairman of the plan commission, and Kreml are to report the feelings of their colleagues on the proposed fee schedule to the village board at the Nov. 16 session.

The board and Hamilton also discussed the present project of enlarging and improving the sewage treatment plant pursuant to orders from the state sanitary water board. The work is supposed to be completed by mid-1972.

Hamilton told the board he is working on the plans and should have preliminary ones ready for the Nov. 16 meeting. He said that if the improvement to the plant is to be ready by July, 1972, work must be started by June of 1971, or close to that day.

Hamilton was authorized to purchase $1,500 of plastic truss pipe for replacement of section of broken line in the Connecticut Hills area. This line is not down too deep, it was pointed out and village crews could do the job at less cost than if the installation was done by a contractor.

The village board has also recommended voters of the village give approval to the state bond issue which will appear on a separate ballot in the Nov. 3 election. The money realized through the sale of these bonds would be used in combatting pollution.

Frankfort itself may get help in improving its sewage disposal plant from these bonds, it was pointed out.

Mayor Warning has proclaimed Nov. 1-7 as Ecology Week.

It was also pointed out that burning leaves is forbidden under the state statutes governing pollution. The thing to do with leaves was to bag them and let the garbage men haul them away.

Some sketches for landscaping the planters on Ash and Oak streets — one-way thoroughfares — are to be submitted to the board. When approved the Chamber of Commerce will take over the job of landscaping, it was said. The council also authorized Trustee Robert Dean to purchase another street decoration for the Christmas season.

Trustee Allan Mager reported that Ralph Show of the Ford agency bearing his name, had submitted a sketch of what he plans to do to transform a trailer into a building on his used car lot on U.S. 30. However, Mager said, he has no detailed drawings or specifications. He hoped to have something concrete within a week.

Wunder Construction Co., of Plainfield was paid $3,758.68 from motor fuel tax funds for work on Evergreen Drive.

The zoning ordinance was amended to change the classification of two lots north of Nebraska St., owned by Herbert Folkers, from I-1 to R-1.

Girl routs attacker With kick in shins

LINCOLN ESTATES -- Lincoln Estates residents are disturbed as a result of an incident last week in which a 13-year old girl was seized by a man who leaped from an old yellow car as she was walking along U.S. 30 enroute Ann Rutledge School.

It was 8:40 a.m., Tuesday, Oct. 13, that the incident occurred, according to the report at the sheriff's office. When the man jumped from the car and grabbed the girl, she kicked him on the shins. Her attacker let go of her arm and the girl ran. The man reentered the car and drove away. The girl caught up with companions about a block ahead of her.

She described the man as about 35 years of age, with black, shoulder length hair, a black moustache and long sideburns.

The car was described a yellow, 4-door, with rust showing through the paint on the passenger side. The right front headlight appeared to be broken.

The girl told deputies she had never seen the car or man previously.

Anyone who saw a man or car of this description in the area either that day, anytime previously or since, is asked to communicate with the sheriff's office. The source of information will be kept confidential, deputies said.

The Helping Hand, an organization formed to give aid and protection to children who may be accosted on the street, has 38 homes in Lincoln Estates where a youngster may seek refuge.

The homes offering sanctuary are marked by a placard showing a red hand on a white background. Parents are asked to inform their children that they can get help, when needed, at any of these homes so marked.

Valley View Negotiation

pected that deal will be closed Nov. 1, and that the districts would have a year in which to carry out their part of the agreement.

The property on the south side of Lincoln Highway is adjacent to the village of Frankfort, Wennlund said, so the annexation should present no difficulty.

It also has been pointed out that the 30 acres north of would be of great value to the park districts. There has been a clamor in each district for more recreation facilities, especially a swimming pool. The pool at Valley View probably is in need of some repairs but it would put the parks in the swimming business immediately, it was pointed out. Those familiar with real estate values say the park districts would be making a good deal if they can get the property at a cost of around $75,000.

Noethen represented the board at the hearing. He is liaison officer for events occurring in the Bolingbrook area that would concern the school district. The school board is concerned because the shopping facility will be close to North View School, creating problems for pedestrians.

Congressman John Erlenborn replied to a request made by J. Patrick Page, school official, for a commemorative stamp dedicated to the 45-15 year-round school plan. Erlenborn said he would bend all efforts to bring the stamp to reality.

The Will County Board of School Trustees will hear the final action on the petition to separate the high school district 205 on December 14 at 10 a.m. in the Will County Court House.

A community dinner will be held on Oct. 19 at 6:30 p.m. Community officials and representatives of taxing bodies have been invited. Ways to occupy the time of the students on their 15 day vacations will be discussed.

Raymond Hill, assistant business manager, was given permission to apply for additional state aid of $536,513.55 based on average daily attendance. Student load increased from 5,272 to 6031 pupils.

Paul Powell

by Marge Ratcliffe

Paul Powell was perhaps the most available public official this state has ever had. He always had time to stop and talk with people for a few minutes; he was truly interested in them; and they knew it.

His friendliness and warmth were not evident not only during election years. . . but all the time. He believed in people, and they acted a little better because of it.

Powell had a marvelous sense of humor. Many of his comments have become part of the political language in Illinois. He also had great strength. Anyone who ever saw him in action when he was Speaker of the House of Representatives was surely impressed with his ability to govern and still keep the respect of his peers.

His ambition after his election as Secretary of State was to be the best Secretary the state of Illinois ever had. We think he was.

Perhaps the feeling about Powell was best summed up by Rep. Clyde Choate of Anna, a longtime friend of his. At the memorial services held at the Capital last Tuesday, Choate said,

"These are the virtues that made Paul Powell the man he was. It is not the fame, the power, or the public record which gives him a special place in our hearts.

"Instead, it is these virtues and the human touch of Paul Powell which made him the most unforgettable man to ever walk these halls."

Once, when Powell was enjoying a battle with a newspaper, he said, "The only thing that newspaper's good for is to wrap dead fish in. . ."

He once wrote this newspaper a very nice letter, with no mention of fish.

There will never be another like him. He was really an original model, not to be duplicated. He is sadly missed.

No endorsement

Members of the Lemont village board did a curious thing for public office holders at their last meeting. They declined to express an opinion.

Not that remaining silent is wrong in itself. Unfortunately, it is the route most overlooked. But in this case we believe it to be an evasion of responsibility.

The issue in question is the $750 million anti-pollution bond referendum to be decided by Illinois voters Nov. 3. When it came up in a discussion with the secretary of the Lemont Pollution Commission, all of the trustees agreed that they supported the issue.

But when the question of endorsing the referendum came up, the opinion was given that some voters in the village may not agree with the referendum and therefore the trustees would not be speaking for the entire village. And so the issue was not endorsed.

In making their decision, we believe the village board misperceived their role as representatives of the village.

Certainly village board members are elected as representatives. But they also are elected because they are leaders.

An endorsement of the bond issue would not of meant that the village of Lemont was recommending a yes vote to the entire state. Rather, it would have meant that the village trustees, as elected leaders of their constituents recommended approval of the referendum to Lemont residents.

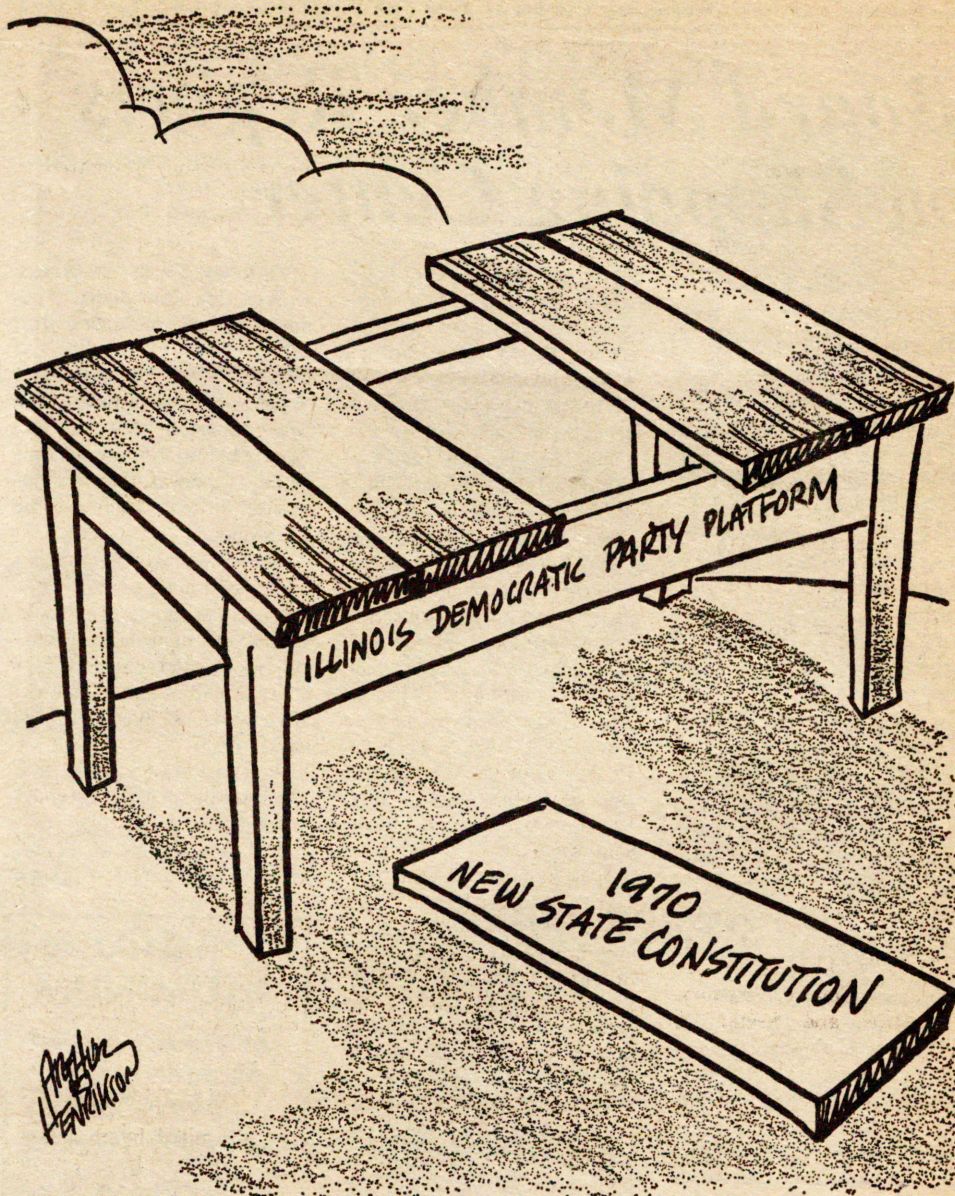

We are not saying that the village board should take a stand on every election with which residents are faced. That would mean becoming a partisan body.

But the anti-pollution bond referendum is non-partisan. Furthermore, it would have a direct effect on municipalities, the second largest source of water pollution, by opening the door for increased federal grants for municipal sewage treatment and solid waste disposal improvements in Illinois.

The referendum is expected to suffer from voter apathy. In order to pass, it must gain a majority of those voting for members of the legislature. In other words, a resident who votes for a member of the General Assembly casts a no vote for the bond referendum if he declines to vote at all on that issue.

Because of this expected apathy, it is important that the referendum get as much support as possible.

We support it, and believe the village board of Lemont should have.

Letters to the editor

To the Editor:

Our sincere thanks to the residents of the Lemont area for the fine support that was given to the Lemont Lions Club "Candy Day for the Blind."

Last year the Lemont Lions Club was able to donate $285 to LEADER DOG FOR THE BLIND, $385 to HADLEY SCHOOL FOR THE BLIND, $85 to DIALOGUE (recordings for the blind), $60 to CAMP LIONS FOR THE VISUALLY HANDICAPPED, $25 to the Illinois Society for the Prevention of Blindness, $95 was used in Lemont for eye glasses for the needy and $139.41 was used for blind assistance. All this was made possible by Candy Day.

Other projects of the Lemont Lions Club provide funds for our other programs which enabled us to donate $150 to the Lemont Little League, $85 to the Mentally Retarded, $200 to the Lemont Teen Club, $100 to the Lions Scholarship Fund for individuals interested in teaching the handicapped, $25 to the West Suburban Boy Scouts, $60 to Care, $175 for assistance to local residents in need because of mishap, as well as other contributions to local projects.

The residents of Lemont and the members of the Lemont business, industrial and professional community made 1970 "Candy Day" the best to date. Our contributions to the many sight programs will be raised accordingly.

Our thanks to the news media, especially to the Paddock-Crescent Newspapers for their fine series supporting programs for the blind and visually handicapped.

My personal thanks to the community, and the members of Lemont Lions Club who gave freely of their time, and to the others who made "Candy Day" a success. Rain and cold weather did not deter those dedicated to help others.

Sincerely yours

with appreciation,

Robert J. Kuebler

Open Letter to the 1970 Junior Class of Lemont Township High School:

I'm very disappointed that you had chosen the Dance, rather than the Football Game for announcing the Queen at the Homecoming this year. A precedent had been set, and the participants at the game expected to see the crowning. Being a shift worker I couldn't attend the dance and was unable to see it. As my daughter was in the court, I would very much like to have seen the crowning and had shared some of the happiness and pleasure with her. I'm sure many more parents and other boosters came to the game that couldn't go to the dance and would like to have witnessed the event. I hope that future classes and the school authority will think of the parents and other participants in the events such as this.

A Lemont Booster,
Raymond Roth Sr.

(c) Members of the Cook County Board shall be elected from two districts, Chicago and that part of Cook County outside Chicago, unless (1) a different method of election is approved by a majority of votes cast in each of the two districts in a county-wide referendum or (2) the Cook County Board by ordinance divides the county into single member districts from which members of the County Board residents in each district are elected. If a different method of election is adopted pursuant to option (1) the method of election may thereafter be altered only pursuant to option (2) or by county-wide referendum. A different method of election may be adopted pursuant to option (2) only once and the method of election may thereafter be altered only by county-wide referendum.

Sec. 5. Townships: The General Assembly shall provide by law for the formation of townships in any county when approved by county - wide referendum. Townships may be consolidated or merged, and one or more townships may be dissolved or divided, when approved by referendum in each township affected. All townships in a county may be dissolved when approved by a referendum in the total area in which township officers are elected.

Sec. 6. Powers of Home Rule Units: (a) A County which has a chief executive officer elected by the electors of the county and any municipality which has a population of more than 25,000 are home rule units. Other municipalities may elect by referendum to become home rule units. Except as limited by this Section, a home rule unit may exercise any power and perform any function pertaining to its government and affairs including, but not limited to, the power to regulate for the protection of the public health, safety, morals and welfare, to license; to tax; and to incur debt.

(b) A home rule unit by referendum may elect not to be a home rule unit.

(c) If a home rule county ordinance conflicts with an ordinance of a municipality, the municipal ordinance shall prevail within its jurisdiction.

(d) A home rule unit does not have the power (1) to incur debt payable from ad valorem property tax receipts maturing more than 40 years from the time it is incurred or (2) to define and provide for the punishment of a felony.

(e) A home rule unit shall have only the power that the General Assembly may provide by law (1) to punish by imprisonment for more than six months or (2) to license for revenue or impose taxes upon or measured by income or earnings or upon occupations.

(f) A home rule unit shall have the power subject to approval by referendum to adopt, alter or repeal a form of government provided by law, except that the form of government of Cook County shall be subject to the provisions of Section 3 of this Article. A home rule municipality shall have the power to provide for its officers, their manner of selection and terms of office only as approved by referendum or as otherwise authorized by law. A home rule county shall have the power to provide for its officers, their manner of selection and terms of office in the manner set forth in Section 4 of this Article.

(g) The General Assembly by a law approved by the vote of three-fifths of the members elected to each house may deny or limit the power to tax and any other power or function of a home rule unit not exercised or performed by the State other than a power or function specified in subsection (1) of this section.

(h) The General Assembly may provide specifically by law for the exclusive exercise by the State of any power or function of a home rule unit other than a taxing power or a power or function specified in subsection (1) of this Section.

(i) Home rule units may exercise and perform concurrently with the State any power or function of a home rule unit to the extent that the General Assembly by law does not specifically limit the concurrent exercise or specifically declare the State's exercise to be exclusive.

(j) The General Assembly may limit by law the amount of debt which home rule counties may incur and may limit by law approved by three-fifths of the members elected to each house the amount of debt, other than debt payable from ad valorem property tax receipts, which home rule municipalities may incur.

(k) The General Assembly may limit by law the amount and require referendum approval of debt to be incurred by home rule municipalities, payable from ad valorem property tax receipts, only in excess of the following percentages of the assessed value of its taxable property: (1) if its population is 500,000 or more, an aggregate of three percent; (2) if its population is more than 25,000 and less than 500,000, an aggregate of one percent; and (3) if its population is 25,000 or less, an aggregate of one-half percent. Indebtedness which is outstanding on the effective date of this Constitution or which is thereafter approved by referendum or assumed from another unit of local government shall not be included in the foregoing percentage amounts.

(l) The General Assembly may not deny or limit the power of home rule units (1) to make local improvements by special assessment and to exercise this power jointly with other counties and municipalities, and other classes of units of local government having that power on the effective date of this Constitution unless that power is subsequently denied by law to any such other units of local government or (2) to levy or impose additional taxes upon areas within their boundaries in the manner provided by law for the provision of special services to those areas and for the payment of debt incurred in order to provide those special services.

(m) Powers and functions of home rule units shall be construed liberally.

Lockport to observe American Education

"Shape Schools for the 70's" is the theme and challenge of this year's American Education Week observance, October 25-31.

In announcing local participation in the observance, Lloyd W. Harrell, superintendent of District 205, called upon the entire community to join in a reassessment of the school's role in today's society.

"During the sixties," he said, "there was an awakening across the country to many alarming inadequacies in our educational programs and during the seventies we must achieve marked improvement."

"We must face up to the new complexities of life," Mr. Harrell stated, "making sure our schools afford the student adequate and relevant experiences to enable him, on attaining adulthood, to be a contributing and self-respecting citizen, gainfully employed, and able to cope with his environment and fellow men."

American Education Week

held annually since 1921, is sponsored by the National Education Association, The American Legion, the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, and the U.S. Office of Education.

In addition to the traditional emphasis on school visitation by parents, good citizenship, and the need for strengthening and supporting the schools, this year's observance will focus on ways in which the schools might be changed and how more people can work together in shaping the schools for the 70's.

Martin H. Hankin, Principal of Lockport East High School, urges all citizens of Lockport to take this opportunity to visit the schools. Lockport East will hold Open House October 27 and 28. Visiting hours at Lockport East are from 10 a.m. to Noon for parents of sophomores, and from 1-3 p.m. for parents of freshmen.

"No doubt," he says,

"you will find areas which need improvement. On the other hand, you may be pleased to discover innovative programs of which you were not aware." Hankin points out further that interested parents and citizens should do more than observe. "Ask questions at the schools, of the school board, and of other officials," he advises. "Give them the benefit of your recommendations and find out what financial support the schools are receiving."

"Find out who supports and who suppresses educational advancement," he urged, "and remember the significance of giving your support to legislators and political candidates who conscientiously work to improve the schools."

Business Women Honored

LOCKPORT -- Mayor George Nordstrom of Lockport officially signed a proclamation recognizing the week of October 18-24 as National Business Women's Week, to be observed by the local Business and Professional Women's Club. On children with undiscovered reading handicaps: "Should a child be considered 'average' all through his academic career?"

Diocese to aid joy of reading

Text by Marge Ratcliffe

"It is such a joy to read," Father Niles Gillen, Superintendent of the Joliet Diocesan Schools, said recently. "The love of reading can be compared to a healthy appetite . . . after the first bite, you can't get enough."

His remarks concerned a $304,000 program currently in operation in the Joliet Diocesan Schools. Reading achievement levels of all second, fifth and seventh grade students enrolled in the 73 elementary and intermediate schools of the Diocese are being tested by the Britannica Reading Achievement Center (BRAC).

The testing began in September and is expected to be completed by mid-December. The programs are conducted in the schools and administered by the Britannica Center at no cost to the Diocese.

Former Vice President Hubert Humphrey, a member of BRAC's advisory board, made a joint announcement of the program with Father Gillen at the Center's headquarters in Oakbrook on October 6.

When Humphrey explained the program and its goals, he said, "Every week students come in that door who are indifferent to the learning process at school, indifferent to motivation by their teachers or by their parents. We want to know why."

The tests, Humphrey said, identify strength as well as weaknesses. The program is geared toward helping the underachiever.

Father Gillen is concerned that large numbers of American school children are deficient in basic reading skills.

"The reading program has been of great concern to the authorities of the Joliet Diocesan School System for some time. It has often been the subject of staff conferences."

"One of the things about reading diagnosis . . . it shows that reading deficiency is not strongly related to intelligence. Often, even average or bright youngsters can be poor readers.

"However," Father Gillen added, "as invaluable as diagnostic reading testing is, it costs money. Our system is not much different from others insofar as budgetary problems are concerned."

He added, in jest, "Our problem is not money . . . it is the lack of it that's driving us up the wall."

"The main thrust of this program is that it will assist kids whose weaknesses might have gone undetected. It is often difficult to determine what the 'key' is that will open a child's problem."

Father Gillen contends there is no one "best" way to teach reading. The most successful teachers use a variety of techniques, he says, but added that more important than the method is the competence of the teacher.

He credits Sister M. Dominic Krivich, Diocesan Testing Consultant, with acquiring the program for the schools.

Early last summer, she heard about the proposed program and went to Oakbrook to talk with Britannica personnel.

She explained their schools' problems in trying to offer constructive help to poor readers, while still caring for the needs of the other children in the class.

As a result, the school was notified they would be the recipient of the project, actually being conducted because of a nation-wide concern with reading.

Father Gillen cited some examples of what will be attained through the diagnostic program.

The typical class of about 30 students might show that only six to twelve of the 30 youngsters will be 'normal' readers, doing what is expected of them with only minor differences, if any.

Between 12 and 18 of the 30 pupils will have minor deficiencies, possibly due to a lack of understanding of some skills, which could develop into a serious problem if not given teacher attention.

From three to six of the class probably will read significantly below their classmates' level, and may need remedial instruction from a trained reading specialist.

At least one or two of the 30 may have deficiencies severe enough to require clinical help. In these cases, there often is evidence of physical, psychological or neurological problems.

Father Gillen further remarked, "When the education of children is at stake, cooperation rather than divisiveness, it seems to me, is essential. Bickering between public and non-public school systems, between education and industry, must cease.

"To do the job, we need the combined talents of all who are genuinely interested in helping children, be they associated with the public, the nonpublic, or the business sector. Personally, I welcome the appearance of BRAC on the scene.

"To me, this marks a significant breakthrough in what I hope becomes a regular feature of the 70's: partnerships between educators and business people in joint efforts to help children learn."

At the present time, almost 5,000 children of the diocese's 9,000 students have been tested. The Reading Center will also offer 83 scholarships valued at $550 each. Additionally, 83 partial scholarships will be awarded valued at $255.

BRAC will also offer discounts for the first sessions attended by any student who subsequently enrolls in the BRAC tutorial programs.

"The best thing about this program," Father

The Cub Scouts will be having a Halloween Party instead of a regular pack meeting this month. It will be held at Mokena Park, weather permitting, on Friday, Oct. 30, beginning at 7 p.m. In the event of inclement weather, it will be held at the school beginning at 7:30 p.m. This is a family fun time, so y'all come!

Brownies of Troop No.

334 are asking the mothers, fathers and friends to save an assortment of articles for their crafts. They are as follows: cardboard tubes from paper towels, waxed paper and the like, styrofoam egg cartons, plastic detergent bottles, 12 ounce frozen juice cans, scraps of material, one pound coffee cans, or nut cans and popsicle sticks.

Steven C. Watkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Watkins, 9425 W. Hickory, graduate of Lincoln-Way High School, has registered for the fall quarter at Milwaukee School of Engineering.

The Cadette Girl Scout Troop No. 336 is planning to collect all kinds of glass containers, both deposit and non-deposit. The girls of the troop would appreciate it, if you would rinse out the containers and save them for collection.

They are going to collect them on Saturday, Nov. 21 and Saturday, Dec. 12 in Arbury Hills at the Baseball Field between the hours of 10:30 A.M. and 2:30 P.M. each time.

If you should miss them at the Baseball Field, they will be in Tinley Gardens at the playground on Saturday, Nov. 14 and Saturday, Dec. 5, between the hours of 10:30 A.M. and 2:30 P.M.

They will also be collected in Mokena at the Park and Shop parking lot on Saturday, Nov. 28 and Saturday, Dec. 19 between the hours of 10:30 A.M. and 2:30 P.M.

The girls are doing this as a fund raising project, since they will be able to sell the containers to a company which reclaims the glass.

Please help them out. It will cost you nothing, but a small amount of time and effort.

The Arbury Hills Baseball League held its meeting at the school on Tuesday, Oct. 13. There was a treasurer's report and a report on the baseball stand. The treasury has some $700.00 towards equipment for next year, and the baseball stand cleared almost $650.00 for the year, an all time high.

Much discussion was held about the dance to be held this winter in February. Chairman for the dance is Jim Lee with Bill Greene and John Evans heading the financial end of the affair.

The nominating committee co-chairmen for the elections to be held in February are Jim Hubbard and Richard Hendrickson.

A lengthy discussion ensued, when Mrs. Louise Hendrickson and Mrs. Beverly Haas brought up a suggestion to have the Girls Softball Teams become affiliated with the Baseball League.

When it became apparent that no ready decision would be reached at this meeting, a committee of five was formed to investigate the feasibility of the suggestion.

One more committee was formed at the meeting that of the budget committee. Jordan Marzano is to head up this committee.

Eagles Rip Reavis; 29-8

ORLAND PARK -- Sandburg High School football team made the Homecoming festivities happy ones for Eagle supporters by trouncing Reavis 29 to 8.

The Eagles of Sandburg really maintained a steady pace in their victory flight. The Sandburgs scored in every period. The Reavis outfit made its tally in the second quarter, with Dinsmore taking the ball over from the one. Williams added two points on a pass from Smith.

The Eagles elected to take their extra points one at a time after the first three touchdowns, with McGhee doing the kicking. Passing or running for the extra points is prescribed when one is behind or lacks a consistent kicker but it is also quite a gamble.

Elect officers

Members of the Will County Room Improvement 4-H Club met recently and elected officers for the 1970-71 year.

Elected were: Donna Dollinger, president; Kathy Holz, vice-president; Carolyn Fitzer, secretary; JoAnn Vance, reporter; Jan McNair and JoAnn Vance, scrapbook co-chairman; Fern Findlay and Kathy Holz, tour co-chairman; Donna Cowger and Donna Dollinger, Federation delegates.

Carolyn Fitzer will host the next meeting, Nov. 21 at 1 p.m.

Rockets roar past Lincoln-Way Knights

PARK FOREST -- Lincoln-Way High School football team lost another one last Saturday when it bowed to Rich East 44-0.

The Rockets of Rich started scoring early and kept it up. The Knights of Lincoln-Way kicked off and on the first play after the return O'Sullivan, Rocket quarterback, hit Nemeroff with a 27 yard pass. One play later and following a five yard run by Simpson the Easts were on the scoreboard.

Just before the half ended the Knights started moving and pushed to the Rockets 45 when they lost the ball on a fumble. Lincoln-Way started moving again when the third quarter was new. Gregg Mundt moved his team into Rich territory to the 46-yard line. There on a fourth down situation Rich was penalized for roughing the passer and the ball was advanced to the Rich 32-yard line. A penalty and an interception dashed Lincoln-Way's hopes. The Knights weren't close again.

Hold former Mokenan in baby death case

JOLIET -- A Will County grand jury has brought in a true bill charging William Pommering, 22, of 1003 Lois Pl., formerly of Mokena, with involuntary manslaughter in the death of his 22-month old step-son. The indictment carries a lesser charge than that placed against him in magistrate's court the previous day. On that occasion Pommering was charged with murder. The grand jury, however, indicted him for manslaughter and his bond was set at $20,000.

The infant, James Angulo, died last Sept. 22. He was taken to St. Joseph Hospital on that date, and according to information from investigators, the child showed numerous bruises.

Pommering told police at the time that the baby had fallen out of bed twice. At the hearing in magistrate's court two neighbors were called to testify and medical testimony also was taken. The defense offered no testimony.
